

Curriculum vitae

KIRSTY BRAES

BDes (HONS) MA UD

Kirsty graduated in 2012 in Interior and Environmental Design from Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art and Design. During her studies she developed a keen interest in the spaces between buildings, which led to a focus on the design of the public realm. Kirsty has previous experience in CAD drafting, interior design and more recently in planning consultancy, where she produced planning statements, design and access statements and appeal statements for a wide variety of commercial and residential projects.

Kirsty joined Peter Stewart Consultancy in 2016 after completing a Masters in Urban Design at the University of Westminster. Her role includes heritage research, viewpoint selection, the production of maps and desktop publishing. Kirsty has produced reports for smaller scale projects and planning appeals, along with assisting the project leads with larger projects and contributing to the writing of reports, including historical and townscape analysis and views assessments.
