

Curriculum vitae
SYLVIA SYNODINOU

BA (HONS) DipArch MA UD

Sylvia Synodinou studied architecture at Oxford Brookes University and then went on to complete a Masters in Urban Design in 2009.

She has worked in a variety of different roles and organisations, including architectural practices, Design Council Cabe, Urban Design London and in local authority. In all her roles Sylvia has gained experience in the various aspects of architecture and urban design: specifically, in the Design Review process; best practice in urban design and the evaluation of schemes; and planning policy on design.

During her time at Crawley Borough Council Sylvia wrote the Supplementary Planning Document for Urban Design, as well as assisting the Forward Planning team in taking the Local Plan through examination successfully in 2015.

Sylvia joined Peter Stewart Consultancy in early 2016 where she is responsible for writing townscape, visual impact and heritage assessments and environmental statements, for projects of varying size and complexity.
