

Curriculum vitae

KIRSTY BRAES

BDes (HONS) MA UD

Kirsty graduated in 2012 with a BDes (Hons) in Interior and Environmental Design from Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art and Design. She developed a keen interest in the spaces between buildings which led to a focus on the design of the public realm in her final year. Kirsty has previous experience in CAD drafting, interior and architectural design and more recently in planning consultancy, where she produced planning statements, design and access statements and appeal statements for a wide variety of projects; both commercial and residential.

Kirsty joined Peter Stewart Consultancy in 2016 after completing a Masters in Urban Design at the University of Westminster. In her role at Peter Stewart Consultancy, Kirsty has produced townscape, visual impact and heritage assessments for smaller scale projects and reports for planning appeals, as well as working on Townscape and Visual Impact Assessments for larger projects, including environmental statements.

